Did anyone ever see more "growing weather?"

Don't forget to hear Miss Frank 17th You will never regret it.

Just three weeks until the "Glorious 4th", wonder will it be a safe and sane one?

A Sunday schedule went into effect on the K. C. division through here on last Sunday.

The strawberries are giving way to raspberries and blackberries will soon be on the market.

The mercury dropped to 50 on last Sunday morning and many a shivering mortal wished he had not changed 'em.

Shop at home, there are unprecedented bargains in the local stores, examine before you go away from home to buy.

The "hoss disease" has about made its final bow.

Sells Interests.

Mr. Ed Perkins who has been connected with the Lancaster Mills and Elevator Co. for more than eighteen months sold out his interests to his partners, Messrs. Alex Walker and G. C. Rose last Saturday. Mr. Perkins expects to remain in the county and will probably buy a farm in the near future.

Once Too Often To The Well.

The Lancaster colored base ball team, the hitherto unconquered champions, went up to Paris on Tuesday and went down in ignominious defeat at the hands of the Paris team by a score of 5 to 3.

Withdrawal Card.

Having been urged by some of my friends to do so for the best interests of the party, as well as myself, I hereby withdraw from the race for Magistrate in the 1st. District. I thank my friends for the support offered me and assure them it is appreciated. Walton E. Moss.

Visited Lancaster Many Years.

Mr. A. H. LeFever, who travels for H. D. Smith & Co. a Cincinnati candy house, spent Sunday at the Kengariem, as he does frequently and at every opportunity. Mr. LeFever has been "making" Lancaster selling candy for the last 33 years. He is a clever, christian gentleman and his coming is always hailed with delight by many friends here. His home is in Richmond Ind.

Odd Fellows Extend Thanks.

The members of the local lodge of Odd Fellows desire to extend their thanks to Bro. Tindor and Bro. R. H. Tomlinson for the assistance rendered at the memorial services on last Sunday afternoon, also to the officers of the Christian church for the use of the building and to Mrs. Ross Bastin and Mrs. L. N. Miller for the beautiful music rendered.

Mr. Romans Donates One Nights Receipts To Library Fund.

Mr. W. J. Romans, the proprietor of the Lancaster Opera House with characteristic generosity donated the proceeds of Tuesday's entertainment to the Public Library. He had provided a goodly number of splendid films, advertised the event, and the house was crowded to its capacity. The evening netted a neat sum which will be of material benefit to the rapidly swelling library fund.

Morgan Chinn Gets Good Position.

J. Morgan Chinn has been appointed Circuit Clerk of Franklin county, succeeding Ben Marshall who was appointed Internal Revenue Collector of the Seventh District. He will serve until his successor is elected at the coming November election.

Morgan Chinn is a son of Col. Jack Chinn of Harrodsburg and was formerly Clerk of the Kentucky Court of Appeals. He is well known and popular in Lancaster, and his friends here are rejoicing at his good fortune.

Holdam.

James F. Holdam, who recently underwent an operation at St. Josephs Infirmary in Louisville, died at that institution on Thursday morning June 5th. Mr. Holdam was Circuit Clerk of Lincoln county and one of the cleverest and most substantial citizens of the county. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Louanna James of Crab Orchard, where his remains were taken for interment. Mr. Holdam had a host of friends in Garrard county who mourn his death and extend their sympathies to the bereaved family.

Two Parks.

Lancaster can now boast of two Parks, small ones it is true, but Parks just the same. One is the bone of contention which occupies the center of the public square, and now the L. & N. R. R. is dumping many car loads of dirt into the triangular space belonging to them between the Crab Orchard pike, Campbell street and their tracks and will convert it into a park. The L. & N. have some beautiful little parks at other stations and will have one here. Why not vie with them and endeavor to have Central Park as pretty as L. & N. Park?

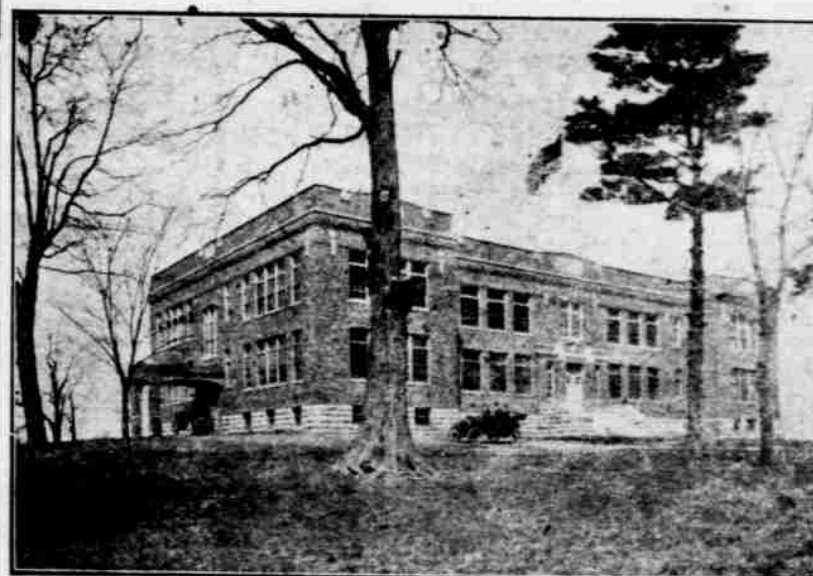

Swope.

News has been received here of the death in Indianapolis of Jesse H. Swope. His death was the result of a stroke of paralysis. The deceased was about forty years of age and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swope both of whom have passed to the Great Beyond, but who were former residents of the Hubble section. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Bright Herring of this county, and had a number of relatives and innumerable friends in Lancaster and the vicinity. He was a former student in the Lancaster schools and a class mate of several of the Record force.

Much Advice.

The building of the concrete walks about the square presented a splendid field for those who are accustomed to volunteer free advice to everyone and upon every subject, and they gathered in small knots about the busy workmen and every suggestion imaginable was made, however their advice fell on deaf ears as the workmen followed out to the letter the directions of the contractors for whom they were working. Could this "advisory committee" be induced to perform some of the actual labor, the work would be finished much more rapidly, but the gang that is long on advice is usually short on manual labor.

LANCASTER'S PRIDE.

Handsome New School Building Erected In Lancaster At a Cost of Nearly $35,000. Closing Exercises of Present School Term

Mark The Completion of The Splendid Edifice.

One of the most interesting and instructive sermons which it has ever been our privilege to hear was that of Rev. Ellis B. Barnes at the Christian church in this city on last Sunday. It was the Baccalaureate Sermon, delivered to the six students who have finished their term in the local school and are now about to abandon school and launch forth into wider fields. Rev. Barnes' theme was "The Power Of An Idea", a fitting subject handled in a masterful manner, and calculated to be of incalculable value to these young people who are standing upon the brink of what is hoped they will make useful lives.

Owing to the disturbed condition of the school during the term just closed, the fact that to was necessary to teach the various grades in different parts of the city, the usual grade exercises were omitted.

Tuesday afternoon Miss Minnie Walsh gave a delightful musical program in the Auditorium participated in by her large class which showed unusual talent and good training.

The class day exercises are being held this Thursday afternoon at the school building and are as always very interesting and amusing.

The commencement program will be carried out Friday evening at 8 P. M. at the School Auditorium and the commencement address will be given by President Henry S. Barker of State University. He will be introduced by Judge L. L. Waker.

Class day program is as follows:
Class Motto: Nihil Sine Labore.

Class President, Frank N. Tindor.
High School quartet, Grace Cochran, Florence Johnson, Frank Tindor, Charles Doty.
Class Historian, Lillie May Sutton.
Class Poetess, Maggie Brown.
Class Solo, Charles Doty.
Class Grumbler, Mattie Adams.
Delphian Oracle, Kate Holtzclaw.
Valedictorian, Frank N. Tindor.

Some Cow This.

Mr. J. A. Dudderar is the proud possessor of a cow that makes the owners of others turn green with envy. This cow, Mr. Dudderar tells us is rearing three calves supplying three families with butter, besides is furnishing quite a little to the grocers of the town. If anyone has a nice blue grass farm they would like to trade for this cow Mr. Dudderar might be induced to part with her.

Move your Hogs Out Of Town.

Chief Herron was busy last week serving notices issued by the Board of Health to the owners of hogs to move them out of the city limits during the heated season. Ample warning has been given and these instructions must be obeyed. If you doubt their authority, just try to violate this order. Hogs are a menace to health and are especially obnoxious in warm weather and no one should hesitate to move them out of town and away from the congested district.

Will Higginbotham A Candidate.

Mr. Joe Higginbotham who came over from Lexington on last Monday with the remains of his uncle, Mr. John Cochran, tells us that his brother Will Higginbotham is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for assessor of Fayette county, and that his chances for winning are excellent. The two Higginbotham boys, patterning after their excellent father, are splendid citizens, and friends here at their old home are sincerely wishing that he may realize his political aspirations.

Cochran.

The remains of Mr. John Cochran were brought here from Lexington on last Monday morning and interred in the Lancaster cemetery. Mr. Cochran was 68 years of age and had been an invalid for many years, but notwithstanding this fact his death which occurred on Sunday afternoon came as a surprise, as his relatives were not aware of the fact that his condition had grown worse. Mr. Cochran was born in the upper end of this county, and was a cousin of Mr. S. D. Cochran of Lancaster. His sister Mrs. George T. Higginbotham of Lexington, with Mr. Higginbotham and son Joe accompanied the remains to this place.

Sad Accident.

Mr. W. G. Colson who was killed in a runaway accident last week near Gibson Station, Va. was a sister-in-law of Mrs. W. B. Moss of this city. Mrs. Colson and her niece Miss Sevier were out driving, when their horse became frightened and ran away. In rounding a sharp turn in the road the buggy was upset and the occupants thrown out. Mrs. Colson fell on her head and her neck was broken, death resulting a half hour later. Miss Sevier was seriously injured and is now in a Middleboro hospital where it is said she will recover. Mrs. Colson was the wife of W. G. Colson a leading attorney of the Bell County bar.

Blue Grass Seed Short.

Messrs W. B. Denny and R. P. Gregory who took their blue grass stripping outfits to Boyle county last week, have returned and report very poor success, the crop was unusually short and of such inferior quality as to be scarcely worth stripping. Dealers could not offer good prices for the seed because of the fact that it contained so many weeds.

Dr. Virgil Gibeay Kinnaird.

It is indeed a pleasure to note the fact to his many friends here that Virgil Kinnaird has just completed his course in the Jefferson School of Medicine at Philadelphia and is now a full fledged doctor. It is still more gratifying to know that he has accepted an appointment as Intern in the Pennsylvania Hospital and has taken charge of those duties. Virgil is a splendid young man and we predict for him unbounded success in this noble profession.

Prof. J. L. Riley To Leave.

With the close of the present school term the connection of Prof. J. L. Riley will be severed with the schools of the city. During his stay in Lancaster Prof. Riley has ever been a zealous friend of the cause of education, and his services have at all times proven highly efficient. During the present term he has labored under many difficulties, principal among which was the necessity for teaching the various grades of the school in different parts of the city, but notwithstanding this and other difficulties which beset his path, Prof. Riley succeeded in giving to the patrons of the school a term which would have been highly commendable under much more favorable circumstances. The new school building was a matter of the deepest pride with Prof. Riley, and even now he expresses great pride in its completion. It is a matter of regret to many that he was not permitted to teach in the handsome structure, but it was otherwise written, whether or not for the best, who can say, but wherever he may go, and what ever may be his vocation in future, and he will doubtless make teaching his life work, there will ever be a warm spot for him in the hearts of a great number of Lancaster people, of whom he made staunch friends during his sojourn here, and they sincerely wish to him and his excellent wife the greatest happiness and prosperity in the life to come.
